(c) whether Government have issued any show cause notices to the companies not complying with the requirements of law; and

(d) if so, the names of defaulting companies and action taken against them?

THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ARUN JAITLEY): (a) to (d) Companies registered under the Companies Act, 1956 are required to hold annual general meetings as per provisions of Section 166 of the Act. A company is required to send annual audited report with its annexures to the members as per provisions of Section 219 of the Act. The Registrars of Companies (ROCs) are not required to maintain records to the effect that companies have sent annual audited reports to the shareholders. In case of default coming to their notice, the ROCs issue default notices and initiate penal action.

Setting up of Family Courts

†2358. SHRI P. K. MAHESHWARI: Will the Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of Family Courts to be set up by Government under the Family Courts Act, 1984, State-wise;

(b) the number of such courts set up from 1984 to March, 2001, State-wise;

(c) the number of cases pending in these courts alongwith the period of pendency thereof, State-wise;

(d) whether Government propose to set up these courts in every State as per the target fixed for each State; and

(e) if so, the concrete steps Government have taken in this direction?

THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ARUN JAITLEY): (a), (b), (d) and (e) Family Courts Act, 1984 is an enabling Act. As per Section 3 of the Act, the State Government after consultation with the concerned High Court, may establish a Family Court for every area comprising a city or town whose population exceeds one million. No target has been fixed by the Central Government in this connection.

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

However, periodically the Central Government has been writing to the State Governments and Union Territories including Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi to establish more Family Courts. The State-wise number of Family Courts set up is given in Statement-I (see below).

(c) The available information is given at Statement-II.
